LEDGER

FIFTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1896.

ONE CENT.

HERE AND THERE
If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Miss Frances Cade returned last night from Cincinnati.

Miss Mary Singleton of Lewisburg is visiting friends in this city.

Mr. James J. Shuckfield returned last night from Cincinnati.

Mr. James Redmond returned last night from a tour up the K. C.

Mr. Current McCaffrey of Paris is on a visit to Mr. Charles J. Collins.

Mr. James H. Hall has returned home from an extended tour of the South.

Miss Rose O'Neil of Newport has given a few days of the Misses Hawley of Market street.

Coincident Mark Donovan, of The Winchester Democrat, who has been housed up for a week or so at his old home in this city, is able to go out again.

Very Personal.—Postage on drop letters, whether sealed or not, is 3 cents. Many persons send their notices through the Postoffice with the postage paid. These are "held for postage." Hereafter they must contain a 2 cent stamp.

Miss Hattie Burrows, who has been ill for some time, is able to be out.

Spring Heel Black and Tan Strap Sandals. J. HENRY PECON.

Ex United States Marshal D. J. Furtach of Louisville was married Wednesday to Miss Anna Ragin of Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Whittington of the Sixth Ward are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine son at their home last night.

The famous impersonator, Edward P. Elliott, will appear at Mayfield, May 14. Program "Hazel Kirk." Admission 10cts.

John Wise, an employee of A. Weiland the saloonist, is in a critical condition, being afflicted with hemorrhages of the lungs.

See the new advertisement of C. D. Russell & Co. "The Chinaman," fourth page. They have something that you can't get anywhere else in this market.

Henry Orr has the dullest line of Baby Carriages in the city, and as he says in his advertisement in THE LEDGER today, "Price is not in it." Call and see him and we'll treat you right.

Robert Harry Brown, the eight-year-old lad who is subject to epileptic fits, and who has been a source of much annoyance to our citizens by reason of his kieptomaniac propensities, has been adjudged of feeble mind and will be sent to the Feeble-Minded Institute at Frankfort.

Among the sufferers by the recent disastrous fire at Cripple Creek, Colorado, was Mr. John B. Nicholson, a Maysville man, who married a daughter of Mr. Q. A. Means and has been in the West for the past five years. He was engaged in mining some thirty miles away, but his home was at Cripple Creek, where he owned property. He telegraphs that his wife and baby are safe but that his house and everything is lost.

Crowning of the May Queen.—The object of the entertainment at the Opera house last night was to raise funds to aid in the purchase of the "Death Abbey" of the "Death" of which "Abbey" the various newspapers of the country have frequently spoken of late.

On this same night, throughout the entire Southland, there are being had entertainments for this same purpose.

Let every one in Maysville see that this town is not behind in her liberal share of patronage for this good cause. This is to be an old-fashioned "Crowning of the May Queen," represented by a queen and her court of young girls drawn from the best families of the town. It will be a beautiful eight-weeks' spending 50 cents upon.

Let everyone here himself and himself to the Opera house tonight and help this cause along. Mrs. Eulie is in charge of the affair.

A YACHTING EXPERIENCE.

Jones was yachting on the Ohio River. He married a woman in his boat. In one house they settled down. A babe made them hearts rejoice.

One night as he steered the infant around in the bedroom, both cold and chill, the infant was suddenly stirred by a sound. That sound was his wife's voice.

"Good evening, George," Mrs. J. exclaims. "Oh, what a most awful dream."

"Oh, nothing, dear," he grimly explained. "I simply got on the wrong tack."

DOCTOR HUFF "HUFFY."

We Write a Salty Card About Mr. M. C. Clegg.

J. P. Huff, Superintendent of the Institution for the Feeble Minded Children at Frankfort, has sent to a local paper for publication a very salty card, which he takes to task to M. C. C. Clegg, the retiring Steward of the same institution.

He charges Mr. Clegg with circulating a false report about the management of the institution, and comments upon the kind of a man who would draw sustenance from an institution till "forelly put out," and then slander the place and its power for good.

He says he writes the card while Mr. Clegg is still there, that he may have an opportunity to "sass back" if he feels so inclined.

The blithest portion of the card is the statement by Dr. Huff that Mr. Clegg never decided to vacate his place till he heard that very grave charges were about to be filed against him.

for the purpose of examining and correcting

BRADLEY!

Kentucky's Own Son for President.

BRADLEY'S CURRENCY PLATFORM.

"I am opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, believing it would destroy all National prosperity. The gold dollar is the best dollar, and I am in favor of making every other dollar equivalent to it in value. I am the friend of silver, and believe it can be best protected by holding its value in such bonds as will insure its parity with gold as a circulating medium." — W. O. BRADLEY.

The Paris Kentuckian has another instructive article on the free silver era. It says the advocates of free coinage, ignoring the plainest facts of history and experience, continue to assert day after day that all the difficulty of the present situation is due to the "scarcity of money," and that this scarcity of money is due to the fact that we have a single gold standard.

The continuous repetition of this absurdity is not to be accounted for upon any rational hypothesis.

Free coinage of both metals never has increased the volume of money. On the contrary it has always produced contraction of the currency by expelling the dearer metal in the coinage from circulation. Free coinage under present conditions at 10 to 1 would at once contract our currency to the extent of $625,000,000 by expelling that much gold from the country, and it would take fifteen years to replace this gold with silver even if the Mint did nothing but coin silver dollars during the whole time. That all this gold would be expelled at once is not an open question. It is as clearly demonstrated as any fact of history or experience.

Take the per capita allotment of the gold standard and the silver standard countries and compare them; if proof is needed of what free coinage of silver will do toward "expanding" the currency.

England, France, Germany and the United States are the great Nations of the world which have the gold standard.

In England the per capita allotment is about $20; in France, it is about $37; in Germany it is about $18, and in the United States it is about $23.

In Mexico, a silver standard country, the per capita is $4 1/2; in Russia and Finland $8 32, and in China $3 26.

Special attention of the people who believe that free coinage will give more money is called to this remarkable fact. There is not a silver standard country in the world today which has one-half as much money, per capita, as the smallest gold standard country among all the great commercial Nations of the world.

Free coinage means a silver standard with the scarcity of money that is a striking feature of the monetary system.

As to bi-metalism, about which we hear so much, it is impracticable and impossible except with a single gold standard. There is no such thing as a double standard—two things of different value expressing the same value. It is just as reasonable to talk about a yard measure 36 inches long and one 60 inches long and both of them declared by law to be legal yards. The double standard is a mere catch phrase which means nothing and cannot mean anything. It is a physical and metaphysical absurdity.

If by bi-metalism is meant the concurrent circulation both metals, then the gold standard countries are the only true bi-metallic countries, for it is a fact easily demonstrable that there is not a gold standard country in the world which does not use silver as money along with gold, and that there is not a single silver standard country in the world which uses any gold as money along with silver. Wherever there is a silver standard there is silver monetarism, and wherever there is a gold standard there is the use of both gold and silver as money. If the people wish silver monetarism with a per capita of about six dollars they can get it by making a free coinage law at the ratio of 16 to 1.

First, get a wife, second, be patient. You may have great trials and perplexities in your business but do not, therefore, carry to your home a cloudy or contracted brow. Your wife may have trials, which, though of less magnitude, may be harder for her to bear. A kind word, a tender look, will do wonders in chasing from her brow all clouds of gloom. To this we would add always a smile, a kind word, a smile.
